

DGS Employee of the Week: Kash McGuire

The Department of General Services (DGS) is pleased to feature Kash McGuire as Employee of the Week. Kash joined DGS 27 years ago as a member of the Grounds Crew in the Annapolis Capitol Complex and currently serves there as a Carpenter.

In his current position, Kash's work is extremely varied, from framing photographs and pictures, repairing doors and parking gates, handling roof repairs and even making props for Governor O'Malley's news conferences and events.

"I like working with wood and since Annapolis has so many historical buildings it makes my job even more interesting," Kash said, noting that he enjoys meeting and working with governors, senators and delegates and their staff.

In his off hours he enjoys cooking, working around the house and spending time with his wife, Sandra, and their four grown children.

The Maryland Department of General Services thanks Kash for all of his hard work and dedication toward making the Department successful in carrying on the tradition of Doing Great Service!
